

Sample Questions:

1) Which of following is an inhibitory Neurotransmitter?

- Glutamine
- Aspartate
- GABA
- None of the above

2) the most common cause of epilepsy is:

- Idiopathic
- Brain tumors.
- Brain infections
- congenital disorders

3) All of the following are true except:

- Epilepsy is a tendency to have recurrent seizures
- When someone has seizure for the first time then I have to give him antiepileptic treatment.
- In simple focal seizure consciousness is not affected.
- EEG is the most proper method to diagnose epilepsy.

4) What is the first step in management of an epileptic patient presenting with seizure:

- Check his ABC (Airway, Breathing, and Circulation).
- Try to stop him from seizing by force.
- Give him antiepileptic drugs.
- Keep him on his face down.

Answers:

1	c. GABA
2	a. Idiopathic
3	b. When someone has seizure for the first time then I have to give him antiepileptic treatment.
4	a. Check his ABC (Airway, Breathing, and Circulation).